FEBRUARY 1, 1965

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 PM by Floyd Falese, Village President. Roll call was taken and answered as follows:

Larry Knott, present
Rauland Fischer, present
Arthur Lindemann, absent

Fred Cramer, present
Elmer Houlberg, absent
Ron Tessorf, present

Jerome Kessler, Village Clerk read the minutes. The minutes were accepted as read. Chief Sabatino reported that the necessary papers for the construction of a light by Public Service Co. on Route 72 were in the works.

Mr. Quigley, Village Treasurer read the treasurers report. The bills requested for payment were approved. Fred Cramer moved and Larry Knott seconded that those bills requested for payment be paid. Comment was made that the salt being used on the roads was not effective. Bob Smith complimented the Village Board on the street cleanup. Discussion was then held on Unit Elevens roads. Our desire to see spring road improvements was expressed. Mr. Hlavacek inquired as to the progress of the opinion of Motor fuel revenues.

The next Board Meeting was scheduled for March 15th. Mr. Fischer moved and Mr. Cramer seconded that the meeting be adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Jerome Kessler
Village Clerk
